Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6*d.* a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

ROYAL SCHOOL

DAUGHTERS OF OFFICERS OF THE ARMY.

Under the Patronage of Her Most Gracious Majesty the Queen.

---

Contributions are earnestly solicited to enable the Committee to maintain the full number of foundation pupils in the School.

Each donation of 5*l.* 5*s.* entitles to one vote for life, and each annual subscription of 10*s.* 6*d.* paid in advance, gives one vote for the elections during the year.

The School presents exceptional advantages to Officers wishing to obtain for their Daughters the very best possible education at a cost far below the ordinary charge. With that object a limited number of Officers' Daughters are admitted on payment of 80*l.* a year each. Full particulars can be obtained from the Secretary on written application.

Parents or Guardians are permitted to inspect the School within prescribed periods, on an order to be obtained from the Secretary.

1. The Manual of Instruction in Army Signalling having been revised, will be issued to all concerned.
2. Officers Commanding, and Officers entrusted with the important duty of training signallers, are reminded that the course of instruction merely affords a knowledge of the rudiments of the art, and that it is only by frequent practice, under the various conditions that might be expected in warfare, that they, and those acting under their orders, can acquire the experience requisite to render them thoroughly efficient for duty with an army in the field.
3. His Royal Highness looks to General Officers Commanding to prevent any deviation from the principles of visual signalling and the system of instruction laid down in this manual, and holds Commanding Officers responsible for having at all times the prescribed complement of efficient signallers.

2. The following will be substituted for para. 55 of the Allowance Regulations, 1887:—

55. In Army Form P 1940, which will accompany the pay lists, the number of men for whom pay is charged, deducting men subsisted in hospital, prison, or by other corps, or in receipt of the money allowances which cover rations, will be shown in detail by companies. An addition will be made for all men whose pay is charged by other corps, but who are subsisted by the different companies, and for men whose pay has been mulct by award of their own Commanding Officer. Such charges will be supported by certificates on Army Forms P 1950 and O 1675 respectively. The net result will represent the rations admissible for the several companies. Against this will be shown the number of rations actually drawn by the companies, the total of which should agree with the certificate on Army Form F 748 from the Officer in charge of supplies. If it should prove that the number of rations admissible for any company has been exceeded for the period of the pay list (over or under issues in any other period not being allowed to enter into the adjustment), the contract value of the number over-issued will be ascertained and credited in the pay list.

Size, Fitness, and Soundness.

PAYMENTS OF PURCHASE AND REGISTRATION MONEY.Payments at Home.*

941. At home, the purchase and registration money for all horses will be paid by the Inspector-General of Remounts. A monthly account will be sent to the Accountant-General by that Officer, in which will be shown the particulars of payments made during the period. The charges in this account will be supported by receipts, together with a statement showing the age and date of purchase of each horse, and from whom it was bought.

Payments Abroad.

942. Abroad, the payments for all animals purchased will, under ordinary circumstances, be made by the District Paymaster, under the orders of the General Officer Commanding, and the amounts will be included in his monthly account. A return, Army Form B 2081, will be furnished by the General or other Officer Commanding, on the first day of each quarter to the Adjutant-General, in respect to all such purchases. This return should show the price paid, and should be accompanied by certificates from the Veterinary Surgeon as to soundness and age, and from the Commanding Officer as to fitness, and as to each animal having actually joined the corps to which it may be posted.

948. An Officer, other than those belonging to the Remount Establishment, specially employed in the purchase of horses or transport animals for general service, will be granted an allowance of *1*l. a day if at home, or if employed abroad within the command in which he is serving. If he be employed elsewhere abroad, he will receive an allowance of such amount, not exceeding *2*l. a day, as may be approved by the Secretary of State. These allowances will include travelling allowance and all other personal expenses, except the actual cost of transport.

PURCHASE OF HORSES BY OFFICERS.

Officers promoted from the Ranks, procuring Horses.

949. Officers on being promoted from the ranks will be permitted to procure, at troop prices, from the ordinary remounts under the rules laid down in para. 934, the number of horses for which forage allowance is granted to them. Half the price will be paid to the District Paymaster at the time of purchase, from the outfit allowance granted under para. 1001, and the remaining half will be paid within six months by equal monthly instalments. Non-compliance with these directions should be at once reported by the District Paymaster, as laid down in para. 953.

Officers requiring Chargers.

950. All Officers requiring chargers, including Staff and Departmental Officers, under the rank of Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel, will, on application, be permitted to procure not more than two horses from among the remounts; where forage is allowed for only one horse the application will be restricted accordingly. The price to be paid will be that laid down in para. 951.

Prices to be paid by Officers.

951. Officers permitted to purchase Government horses will pay through their Regimental Paymaster the following prices:—

In the Household Cavalry ... ..	63 l.
In all other corps ... ..	52 l.

Amount to be paid to Dealer.

952. The full amounts will be credited to the public, but the sum paid in excess of the troop price will, if a period of not more than three years has elapsed since the horse was originally purchased, in each case be paid by the Inspector-General of Remounts to the dealer from whom the horse was originally purchased.

Payment of Money.

953. The Officer Commanding the regiment or corps of an Officer permitted under paras. 949, 950, and 960, to purchase a horse or horses, will forward a descriptive return, on Army Form B 85, of the horses taken, showing the amounts to be paid to the District Paymaster, who will, with the exception provided for in para. 949, receive and credit the sums due to the public; any delay in payment should be at once reported by the District Paymaster (through the usual channel) to the Adjutant-General at home, and to the General Officer Commanding at stations abroad.

Age at which to be taken.

954. No horses will be allotted to Officers as chargers, unless under special circumstances, which are not within the limits of age laid down in para. 937 for the purchase of remounts.

Conditions as to procuring other Horses in exchange.

955. Should a horse thus detailed be found unfit as an Officer's charger from want of action, or from vice, disease, or accident on duty within a year, application may be made for its return to the ranks, and the Officer may be permitted by the Commander-in-Chief to replace it from the next remounts, at the price laid down in para. 951.

Restriction on Sale of Chargers.

956. A horse thus procured by an Officer must not be sold by private contract or otherwise disposed of within five years from the date of selection, without the previous sanction of the Commander-in-Chief. After the expiration of that period, unless required for the public service, such horse will become the private property of the Officer.

Return to the Ranks of a sound Horse.

957. Should an Officer wish to part with a horse thus procured before it has been in his possession for five years, it will be placed at the disposal of the public, a notification to that effect being sent to the Adjutant-General through the General Officer Commanding. If the horse be passed sound and be effective for Army service, it may be taken back into the ranks at troop price, provided it be at least seven years old; should it be over seven and under 10 years of age, a deduction will be made of 5*l.* for each year in excess of seven. This article will also apply in the event of the death of the Officer.

Return of a Horse on the Officer becoming non-effective.

958. The regulation with regard to the return of a horse to the ranks, as laid down in para. 957, will apply to the case of an Officer who may retire, die, or otherwise become non-effective before the expiration of five years from the date on which he may have procured it.

Disposal of unsound Chargers.

959. Should the horse be unsound or otherwise unfit for the Service, it may be sold with other cast Government horses, and the amount realised will be handed over to the Officer.

PURCHASE OF HORSES FROM THE RANKS.

Officers selecting Horses from Ranks.

960. Officers of the Royal Horse Artillery and Cavalry will be permitted to apply for leave to procure horses from the ranks, under the conditions laid down in paras. 949 to 959.

Conditions of Selection.

961. A mounted Officer, under the rank of Regimental Lieutenant-Colonel, may apply through his Commanding Officer for sanction to procure from the ranks a horse not detailed for a non-commissioned officer, on payment of the price laid down in para. 951; but he will not be allowed to have more than one so selected at any one time, nor to select a horse when he is already in possession of the number to which he is entitled by regulation.

Charger killed in Action or destroyed for Infectious Disease.

962. When an Officer's charger is killed in action or destroyed on account of glanders or farcy, and the Officer thereby becomes entitled to indemnification for its loss under para. 900, he may, in lieu thereof, be allowed to obtain a horse from the remounts or the ranks, if the latter can be spared.

II.—CASTING OF HORSES.

At Home.

963. The horses of regiments and corps serving in the United Kingdom will only be cast by the express authority of the Commander-in-Chief: Application for authority to cast will be made on Army Form B 164, as directed in the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army.

Abroad.

964. At stations abroad the previous sanction of the General or other Officer Commanding will, in all cases, be obtained before horses are cast.

Return of Castings.

965. At stations abroad a return (Army Form B 164) of such horses as are considered, after due examination, to be unfit for further service, will, as prescribed by the Queen's Regulations and Orders for the Army, be transmitted in duplicate by the Officer Commanding the regiment or corps to the Officer Commanding at the station; and the Officer Commanding the regiment or corps, on receiving back the return approved, will, when the horses are cast, cause one copy to be forwarded to the Officer detailed (under para. 940) to conduct purchases, and the other to be annexed to the Pay List or account of the District Paymaster in which credit is given for the amount realised by the sale.

SALE OF CAST HORSES.

To be sold by Auction.

966. When authority has been received for the casting of horses at home stations, their sale will be carried out by public auction, in the manner described in paras. 967 to 979, without further instructions from the Secretary of State for War.

To be in good Condition.

967. When horses are directed to be sold, the Commanding Officer will see that they are put in as good condition as circumstances will permit, and sold by an auctioneer or sworn appraiser on a market or sale day, at such place, and in such proportions, as may be most advisable.

Superintending Officer.

968. The Commanding Officer will take care that an Officer of experience superintends the sale, and will instruct him that if he should have reason to suppose that there is any combination among the buyers to keep down the prices of the horses, he will be at liberty to buy in or postpone the sale of any of the animals, according to the advice which he may receive from the auctioneer in that respect.

Officers and Soldiers not to purchase.

969. No officer or soldier will be allowed to purchase any of the horses directly or indirectly.

Guarantees not to be given.

970. No guarantee will be given by the auctioneer that the horses are free from disease. If, however, there should be reason to suppose that any cast horses authorised to be sold have become affected with glanders or farcy, they will be retained pending a reference to head-quarters; or, in the event of the disease having developed itself, they will be at once destroyed, and a report will be made to the Adjutant-General.

Tolls and Dues.

971. Cast horses, the property of the Crown, are not liable to toll or market dues when sold in a market town.

Commission.

972. The commission of the auctioneer, who shall be a sworn appraiser, will be at the rate of 2½ per cent., with a minimum fee of 10s. 6d., and will be admitted as a deduction from the proceeds of the sale. This commission will cover every charge incidental to the sale, with the exception of the keep of the horses.

Bill of Sale.

973. As soon as possible after the auction, the Commanding Officer will cause to be prepared a bill of sale (on Army Form O 1633), specifying the price obtained for each horse, and the name of the purchaser. The bill of sale will be signed by the auctioneer, and certified to be correct as regards the price of the horses and the names of the purchasers, by the Officer attending the sale.

Payment by Auctioneer.

974. The Commanding Officer will take care that the auctioneer is instructed by the Officer ordered to attend the sale to pay the proceeds of the sale to the District Paymaster (whose address should be furnished) within 14 days, and he will also notify to the District Paymaster the amount realised at the sale. In the case of payment not being made within the stipulated time, the District Paymaster should at once report the fact (through the usual channel) to the Adjutant-General at home, and to the General Officer Commanding at stations abroad.

Credits from Sale.

975. The District Paymaster will credit in his accounts the amount realised, the bill of sale being annexed as a voucher to the account in which the credit appears.

Copy of Bill of Sale to be sent to Adjutant-General.

976. The Commanding Officer will transmit a copy of the bill of sale (on Army Form O 1638) to the Adjutant-General.

Aldershot, Woolwich, and Home Districts.

977. Paras. 966 to 976 do not apply to the disposal of horses cast in the Aldershot, Home, and Woolwich Districts, concerning which instructions will be sent to the General Officer Commanding those districts.

Casting of Horses at Stations Abroad.

978. At stations abroad the proceeds of the sale of cast horses will be paid by the Officer superintending the sale into the hands of the District Paymaster, who will credit the amount to the public, annexing the account of the sale on Army Form O 1638.

Hides and Carcasses.

979. The amount received for the hides and carcasses of all dead animals will be paid over by the Officer Commanding the regiment or corps in whose charge the animals were, to the District Paymaster, for credit to the public.

III.—ACCOUNT OF PUBLIC HORSES AND OTHER ANIMALS.

960. An account will be rendered by all Officers Commanding regiments, dépôts, and corps, who have public animals in their charge. This account will be prepared on Army Form F 774, and will be sent in half-yearly on the 1st April and the 1st October to the Secretary of State for War. When a regiment or corps is ordered abroad, and does not embark any horses or animals which are the property of the public, the account will be rendered to the date of embarkation.

II.—AUXILIARY FORCES.

MILITIA.

A.O. 520.—Pay and Allowances of Men—Separation Allowance.

The Regulations for the Militia, 1886, will be amended as follows:—

1. In para. 799, at the end, the words "with the foregoing exception, separation allowance will not be admissible for non-commissioned officers detached on recruiting duty" will be omitted.
2. In para. 800, at the end, the words "other than as paid recruiters for the Regular Forces or Militia," will be substituted for the words "other than recruiting for the Regular Forces or Militia."

REGULATIONS FOR THE ORDNANCE STORE DEPARTMENT.

A.O. 521.—Proportion of Stores for Her Majesty's Ships.

1. Errata and Addenda to the book "Proportions of Stores for Her Majesty's Ships" promulgated by Clause 194, Army Circulars, 1884, have been approved, and will be issued to Officers and others immediately concerned.
2. Future editions of the "Naval Proportion Book" will be prepared and published by the Admiralty.

A.O. 522.—Regulations for Magazines, &c., 1887—Alterations and Additions.

Further alterations in, and additions to the Regulations for Magazines, &c., promulgated by Clause 48, Army Circulars, 1887, have been approved, and will be issued to those concerned.

A.O. 523.—Conveyance of Explosives.

The following will be substituted for paras. 667 to 688 of the Regulations for the Ordnance Store Department, 1879:—

XII.—Conveyance of Explosives under the "Explosives Act."

667. As a general rule, all gunpowder, small-arm ammunition, or other explosives, will be sent in the manner laid down in paras. 626 and 627, by means of contract carriers, or under special arrangements made under the directions of the Director of Artillery.

668. The articles so conveyed, when they leave the Ordnance Store Department, and until they arrive at their destination, will be subject to the rules laid down by the civil power; and care will therefore be taken by all Officers making issues that packages of the pattern authorised by the Home Office are used.

XIII.—Conveyance of Explosives by Conductors under the Exemptions contained in the "Explosives Act."

669. On an emergency it may be expedient to cause explosives to be conveyed, under the Secretary of State's Warrant, in charge of a Conductor. This will not, however, be done without special authority being obtained.

669a. When dry gun-cotton is conveyed by rail a Conductor will always be sent in charge.

670. When the course referred to in para. 669a has been approved, the Senior Ordnance Store Officer at the depôt from which the supplies will be issued, will at once send a communication to the station master at the nearest railway station, in accordance with the form printed in Appendix VIII., page 142.

671. He will at the same time telegraph to the consignee, and warn him to be prepared for the receipt of the stores, or to make arrangements for their reconveyance, at such a day and hour.

672. On receipt of a reply from the railway authorities he will telegraph again, as directed in para. 671, and give full information to the consignee.

673. Should the orders in force in the district specify the necessity of an escort, the consignor and consignee will both apply to the Officer Commanding for the same, and will further state the day and hour when required, and the number of wagons or carts for which the escort will be required, both to accompany the stores to the railway, and from the station to the destination.

674. There will be four methods by which the explosives can be conveyed to and from the railway stations:—

I.—By military transport, in their own wagons, and with their own horses.

II.—By means of Ordnance Store Department wagons and military horses.

III.—By departmental wagons and contract horses.

IV.—By contract wagons and contract horses.

675. When explosives are conveyed, as in case I. in para. 674, the Ordnance Store Department will leave the loading of the wagons to the military authorities; but in cases II. and III. the Ordnance Store Department will be responsible for the proper loading of the wagons, and for the wagons being suitable in all respects. In case IV., the Ordnance Store Department will also be responsible for the wagons and horses.

676. When the stores are wholly conveyed by military transport, the Ordnance Store Officer will apply to the Officer Commanding for the necessary wagons and horses. In making the application he will confine himself to the quantities to be conveyed, leaving it to the Officer Commanding to determine what transport he will send. The application will also state the time when the wagons will be required at the railway station, and the Officer Commanding will notify to the Ordnance Store Officer the hour at which he will send them.

677. When horses only are required to be furnished by the military authorities, the Ordnance Store Officer will state the number of wagons required and the weight to be conveyed, as also the time when they are to be at their destination; and the Officer Commanding will send such horses as he may consider necessary, and notify to the Ordnance Store Officer the hour at which he will send them.

678. Gunpowder and gun ammunition may be sent together, but never with other explosives. Gun-cotton may accompany small-arm ammunition, but filled shells and war rockets will be sent separately from either.

679. The Ordnance Store Officer will detail the Conductor who is to proceed with the stores, will fill in the Secretary of State's Warrant, and will give the Conductor his instructions, together with a copy of the Act of Parliament (Explosives Act, 1875, 38 Vict. c. 17.), and a note book. The Ordnance Store Officer will also, on the day of departure, advance to the Conductor a sum of money on account, to meet current and other expenses.

680. The amount of money advanced will depend on the distance and nature of the service.

681. The Ordnance Store Officer will take care that every package is carefully and clearly marked with its contents, weight, destination, and special label. These labels are to be affixed before issue in such a manner that they will be destroyed at the opening of the case. They will not, however, be essential in cases when the explosive never leaves Government control, as, for instance, when delivered direct to one of Her Majesty's vessels from a magazine station.

It is to be distinctly understood that only those explosives which are Government property, and have been passed into the Service, are to be so treated, and that the provisions of the Explosives Act, 1875, and all orders and by-laws made thereunder are to be carried out in all other respects, except as regards the above particulars, and except in cases where a War Office Conductor accompanies the consignment.

682. The Ordnance Store Officer will see that specific orders are given against smoking, and against the possession of matches by anyone employed.

683. He will prepare convoy notes in triplicate, and will be responsible that they agree with the warrant in every particular.

684. Prior to the departure of the convoy, he will obtain from the Conductor a receipted convoy note, the Conductor retaining the other two.

685. He will send specific vouchers to the consignee by post, and will notify the departure of the convoy at the same time.

686. He will see that the convoy leaves at the proper time, so as to secure its arrival at the destination at the appointed hour.

687. When explosives are consigned to more than one consignee at the same station, as, for instance, when one portion is intended for the Ordnance Store Officer and the other portion for the Officer Commanding the troops or detachments, the following rules will be adopted:—

(a.) In the first case, the Ordnance Store Officer will arrange for the wagons being at the railway station at the time named, and he will make provision for them, as laid down in paras. 678 to 677.

(b.) In the second case, the Commanding Officer will make his own arrangements, but if the hiring of wagons is necessary the Ordnance Store Department will provide them.

688. The Senior Ordnance Store Officer in the district in which explosives may arrive in charge of a Conductor for shipment (see para. 713) will provide the land transport from the railway station, boats for shipping the stores and the necessary freight to places within the United Kingdom.

EQUIPMENT REGULATIONS.

A.O. 524.—Alteration of Sheepskins for Cavalry Regiments.

1. All sheepskins of the old pattern in possession of Cavalry regiments at home (Household Cavalry excepted) will be altered regimentally, so as to conform to the pattern of sheepskin described in § 5354, List of Changes in War Materiel.

2. The materials required for the alteration of the sheepskins are stated below; they will be supplied on requisitions being put forward through the Senior Ordnance Store Officer of the District:—

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE PRINCE OF WALES, K.G., &c., &c.

H.R.H. THE PRINCESS OF WALES.

MAJOR-GENERAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CONNAUGHT, K.G., &c., &c.

H.R.H. THE DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT.

FIELD-MARSHAL H.R.H. THE DUKE OF CAMBRIDGE, K.G., &c., &c.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but several beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average seven candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

P. RAVENHILL, Major-General, R.E.,
Chairman of Committee.
